Confidentiality Statement

Hope Hospice is happy that you and your family have decided to make Camp HavenHeart a part of your healing process. We would like you to be aware of the following Bereavement Program policies:

The Camp HavenHeart staff is made up of trained volunteers and counselors. Our goal is to make the camp experience a positive and healing one. One way we accomplish this goal is by protecting your confidentiality. Your communication with camp staff is strictly confidential. We must have your written permission to release or obtain any information concerning you. Exceptions to this policy include:

- Mandatory reporting of any possible child/elder abuse.
- The clear possibility of harm to yourself or other people.
- Court ordered release of records.

In these cases, Texas law requires that confidentiality be breached only to the extent necessary to comply with law enforcement or to ensure the safety of the individual(s) involved.

In addition, the counselors and volunteers may disclose confidential information under the following circumstances:

- For case consultation or supervision
- For auditing purposes through the agency or funding sources
- When a signed, written Release of Information is completed.

It is expected that during camp, personal information will be discussed. In order to make this comfortable for everyone, it is our policy to ask camp participants to honor confidentiality as well. It is imperative that whatever is discussed at camp not be repeated to anyone.

Please sign below indicating that you have read and understand the above policies. The signature of a parent or guardian indicates that you have explained the above policies to your child(ren) and will assist them in maintaining confidentiality.
